Class Rule Change: 8.0 To 7.3 Change

Subtitle:

Testing Period Before Sail Adjustment

A submission from:

Polish Yachting Assotiation

Purpose or Objective

the objective of this proposal is to allow proper testing time to establish what the consequences of a sail change from 8.0 to 7.3. The goal of testing period is to come up with a report from a testing party chosen by the IQFOiL class.

Proposal

It is proposed to establish a testing period for choosing best sail for U19 youth women. To do so, it would appropriate to allow two 7.3 rigs to chosen associations for a period of 4 months for establishing the advantages and disadvantages especially low foiling range compared to 8.0. The expectation is to have

Current Position

The sail used for U19 girls is 8.0. The proposal for EGM is to change the sail size to a smaller sail size of 7.3.

Reason

To make such a change in sail size it requires proper testing time to make best decision. The class should allow chosen associations to provide and test the sails. At the end of testing period a report will be made by appropriate authorities.
